1992-1993 *Tribe*man

It has been a year of excitement, joy, and dreams. We have seen the rise and fall of great sports teams, great relationships, and great ideas. We endured another presidential election and have seen our own President, Dr. Lewis Nobles, honored for his dedication of twenty-five years to Mississippi College. Come celebrate the Nobles Legacy with us as we remember the days gone by throughout the past year.

Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Nobles

Dedication

On the occasion of their twenty-fifth year of service at Mississippi College, it is most fitting that the 1992-1993 TRIBESMAN be dedicated to Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Nobles. In the last twenty-five years, much progress has been made under the leadership of Dr. Nobles. This progress has never come at the expense of traditional convictions.

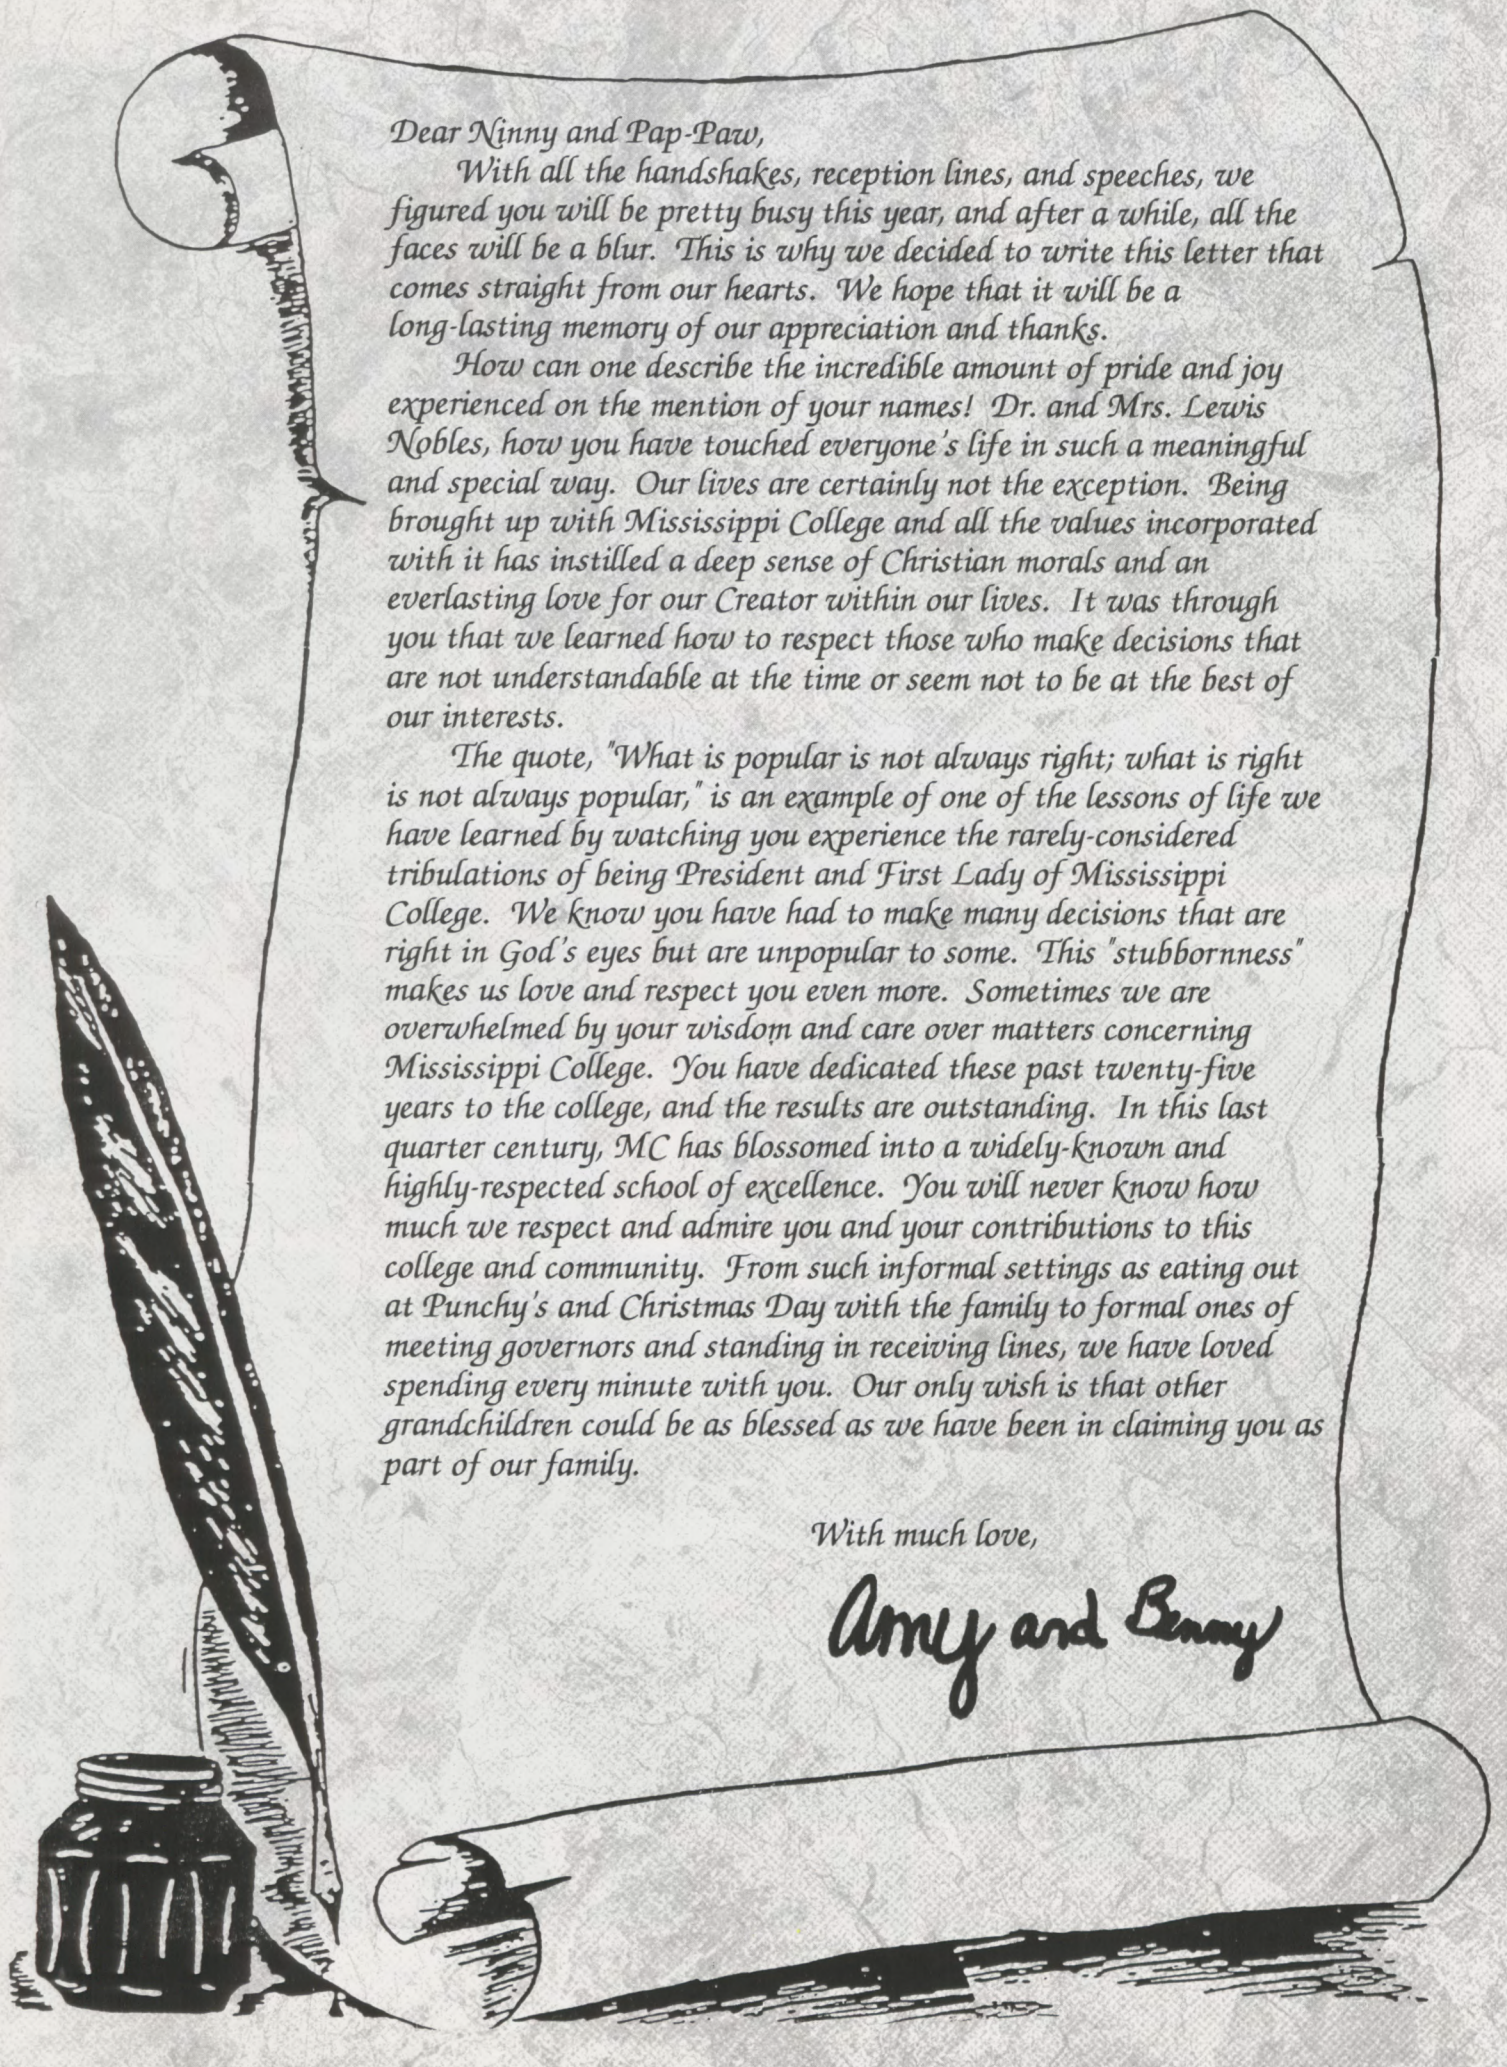

Amy and Bennie Nash are two of the most significant people to Dr. and Mrs. Nobles. They are, of course, their grandchildren. They have written an open letter to the Nobles which appears in this book.

This book is thoughtfully dedicated to both members of a team that perfectly compliments each other — Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Nobles. The 1992-1993 Tribesman Staff joins the entire College Family in celebrating the Nobles Legacy.

Special thanks to Marion and Silber Photography.

Dear Ninny and Pap-Paw,

With all the handshakes, reception lines, and speeches, we figured you will be pretty busy this year, and after a while, all the faces will be a blur. This is why we decided to write this letter that comes straight from our hearts. We hope that it will be a long-lasting memory of our appreciation and thanks.

How can one describe the incredible amount of pride and joy experienced on the mention of your names! Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Nobles, how you have touched everyone's life in such a meaningful and special way. Our lives are certainly not the exception. Being brought up with Mississippi College and all the values incorporated with it has instilled a deep sense of Christian morals and an everlasting love for our Creator within our lives. It was through you that we learned how to respect those who make decisions that are not understandable at the time or seem not to be at the best of our interests.

The quote, "What is popular is not always right; what is right is not always popular," is an example of one of the lessons of life we have learned by watching you experience the rarely-considered tribulations of being President and First Lady of Mississippi College. We know you have had to make many decisions that are right in God's eyes but are unpopular to some. This "stubbornness" makes us love and respect you even more. Sometimes we are overwhelmed by your wisdom and care over matters concerning Mississippi College. You have dedicated these past twenty-five years to the college, and the results are outstanding. In this last quarter century, MC has blossomed into a widely-known and highly-respected school of excellence. You will never know how much we respect and admire you and your contributions to this college and community. From such informal settings as eating out at Punchy's and Christmas Day with the family to formal ones of meeting governors and standing in receiving lines, we have loved spending every minute with you. Our only wish is that other grandchildren could be as blessed as we have been in claiming you as part of our family.

With much love,

Amy and Benny

Orientation

Freshman girls are forced to sing to upperclassmen — they failed to attend the activities at the flagpole each morning.

This is Choctaw Day where freshmen dress up as Indians. Rebecca Crawford and Jamie Nettles received the honor of "Best Dressed."

Kimberly Magee, Brandi Hughes, Kerry Perkins, Millie Long, and Sarah Ann Stewart are all smiles after squeal night.

Kathy O'Dell is happy even though her room is a wreck thanks to her big sis.

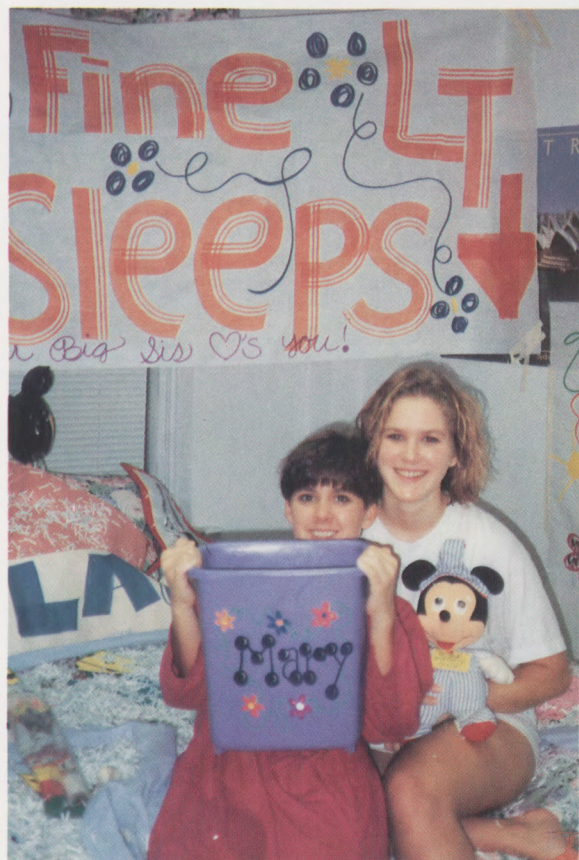

"I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the guys who put mud in my ears."

— Kim Clark

"I felt like a pig in the mud scrapping for my life."

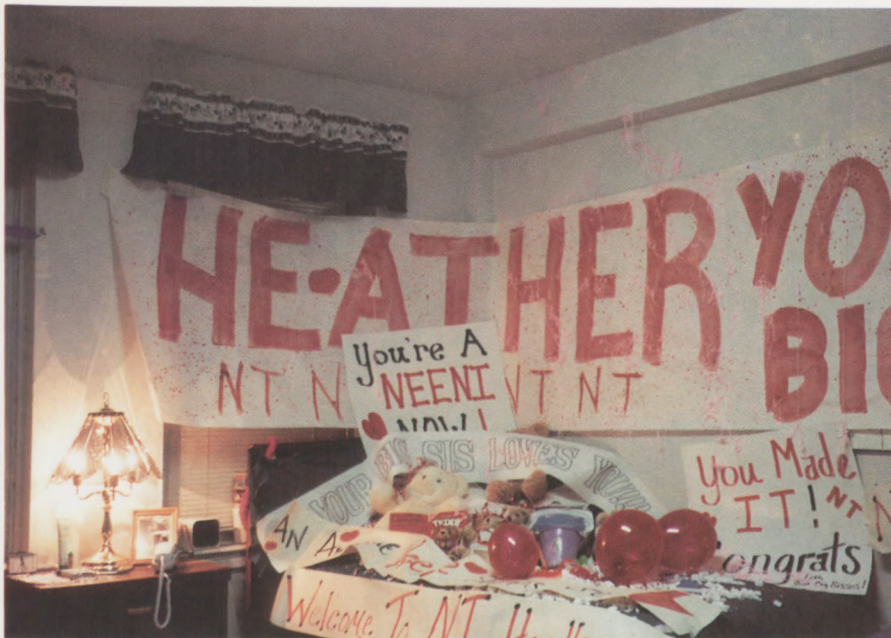

— Matt Brown

Mary and Martha Smith are going to need their new garbage can to put all that confetti in.

Girls anxiously waited in their rooms until 10:00 pm for their bids from their tribe. Rushees ran screaming across campus to meet with other actives and rushees in their prospective groups. When they ran outside, guys were there from all the service clubs. They picked up the rushees and carried them across the campus to the mudpit, where they threw the girls in. Some guys were even pulled in the pit with the girls. After showering most of the mud off, the rushees ran back to their room. There they found a disaster area. Each girl's big sis had put huge signs and streamers on the walls and had thrown confetti all over the room. Underneath the confetti, there was candy and gifts. Some girls had to stay up late in the morning cleaning it all up, but others had a different attitude. Why clean it up tonight when it's probably going to keep showing up all year?

Squeal Night

All the freshman girls went without toilet paper for a few days because the actives stole it for squeal night.

These big sisses really went overboard on the signs.

Lori Colvin and Dana Kelly are Lagunas now and they are happy squeal night is finally over.

Laguna's rush skit included a segment of "Jump! Jump!" NOT!

If the administration finds out about this, these girls will die.

Rush

Rush 1992 was an exciting and new experience for all the pledges. Both the girls and the guys had to go through certain rituals and activities to get into the club of their choice. On general rush night, the girls were bombarded with candy and confetti while the actives ran around and around them screaming at the top of their lungs. The service clubs had parties where the pledges met many of the actives. The social clubs had rush skits and squeal night.

Holly Gilmer and Heidi Allen are ready to go on stage for ST's skit.

Hank Osmundson is just one casualty of Civitan rush this year.

Civitan poses before they go on their annual 130 mile charity run.

Marty Lipscomb and Carol Joy Sparkman go over last minute changes in LT's skit.

Rush skits brought out the actor in everyone.

Members of ST pose after general rush night.

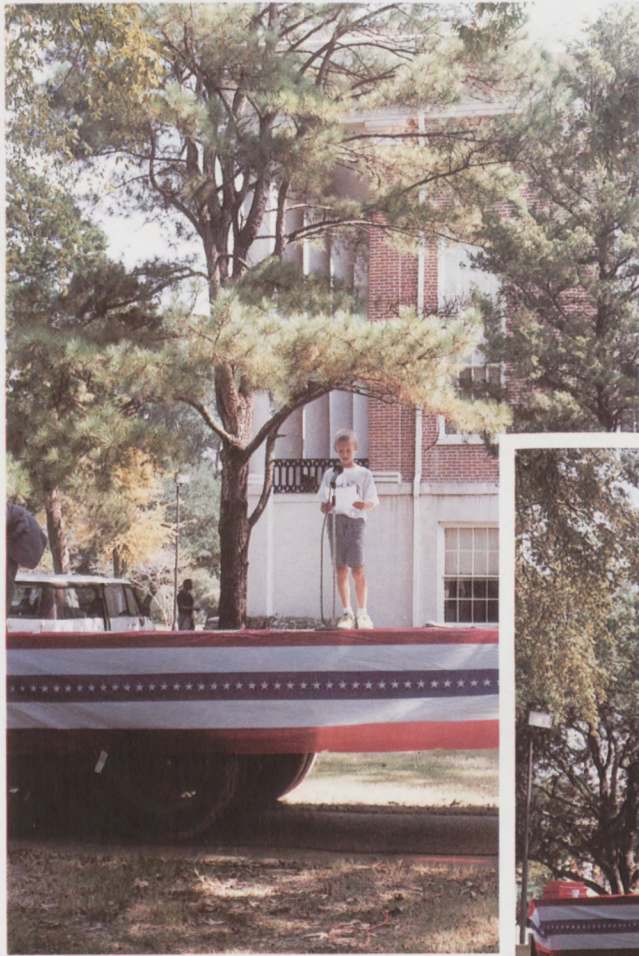

Solon Smith and Ricky Cross show that peace can exist between Civitan and Rotaract.

Circle K actives enjoy lunch in the quad.

I Love America Day

The commemoration of "I Love America Day" was seen in the buttons worn on the shirts of many M.C. students. A picnic in the Quad also highlighted this special celebration. Stan McCaa wore an "Uncle Sam" hat of red, white, and blue. Clothing resembling the colors of the United States flag were worn on this special day to symbolize patriotism to our country and to those men and women who have died to save the meaning of what our country has stood for, freedom!

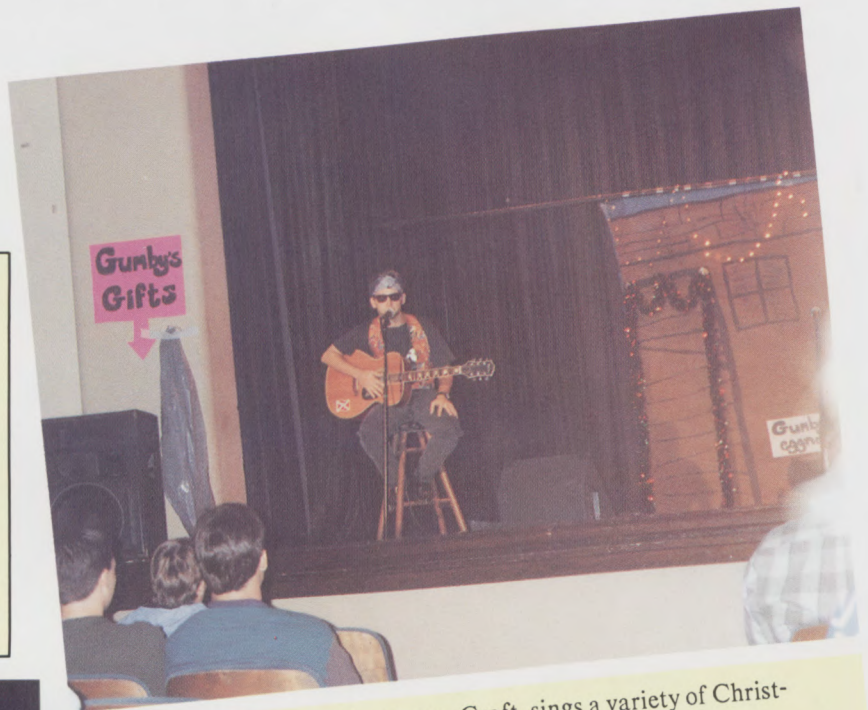

Follies

Live from MC: It's Saturday Night!

Follies of '92 was a real smash. Everyone at some point has seen or heard of Saturday Night Live. In Swor Auditorium we had the chance to meet many of the famous guests that have appeared on the show. Some of the guests were: Ed Grimley, Bob Dylan, Frank Sinatra, Sammy Davis Jr., The Church Lady, Presidential Candidates, Pat, Buckwheat, The Sprockets, Wayne & Garth, Hans & Frans, The Delta Delta Delta girls, Samurai Hotel, and Gumby. The night was a great success. Civitan stole the stage and won first place with their own version of Saturday Night Fever with John Travolta. Nenamoosha came in second with their great dancers. Swannanoa and Laguna tied for third with their unusual and wonderful skits. All in all, everyone did a great job and deserved first place.

Bob Dylan, played by Jimmy Craft, sings a variety of Christmas songs and his famous "We Are the World" verse.

Jerry Welch, Holly Gilmer, Jennifer Moak, and Theresa steal the show playing Gumby and the Tri-Delta girls.

Hank Osmundson — "I really enjoyed Follies. After coming to school over 1000 miles away from home, activities like Follies make the time go by faster and easier to deal with. Of course, when Civitan won first place, it was even better.

Unknown — "The best part about Follies was when Richard Wright played Deiter with the Sprockets.

Rotoract dancers were Ben Buchanan, Todd Brand, Lee Myers, and Marla Huffstatler.

Chris Crawford and Paul Edmonson hosted the night of Follies as Ed Grimley and Buckwheat.

Kathryn Omarkhail and Nicole "wrap it up" as Hans and Frans.

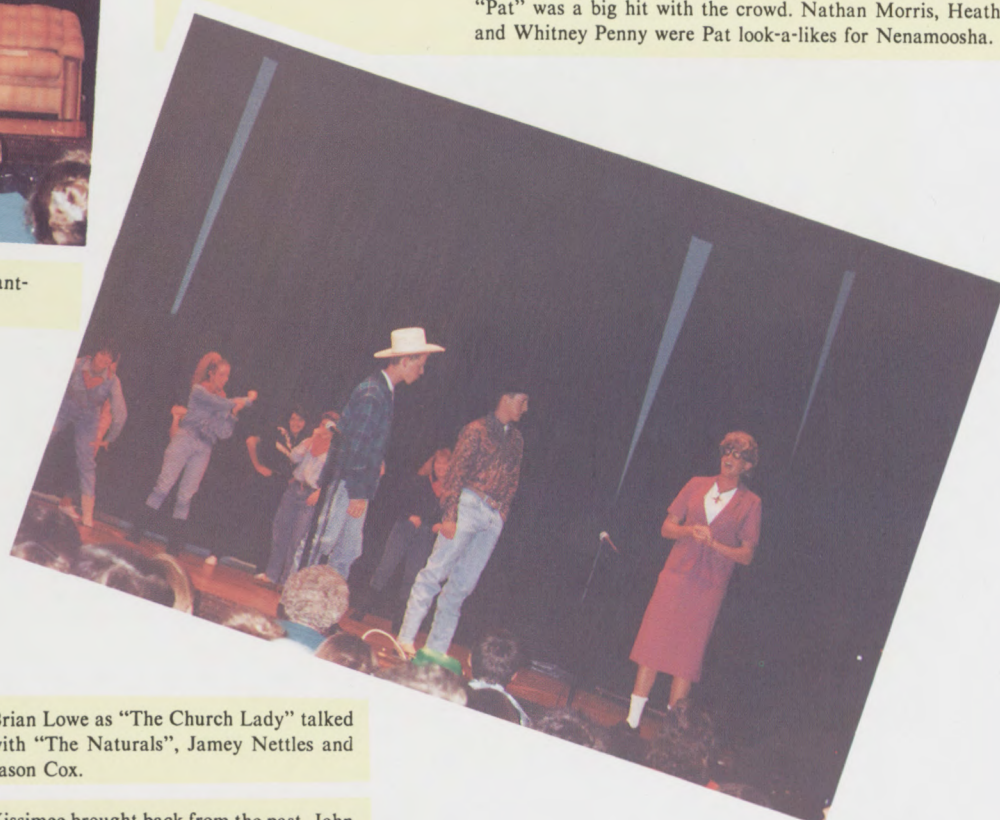

Richard Wright brought laughter to the crowd with his impersonation of Deiter.

"Pat" was a big hit with the crowd. Nathan Morris, Heather, and Whitney Penny were Pat look-a-likes for Nenamoosha.

Civitan stole the whole show with Rusty Bryant as a nerd wanting a date for Homecoming.

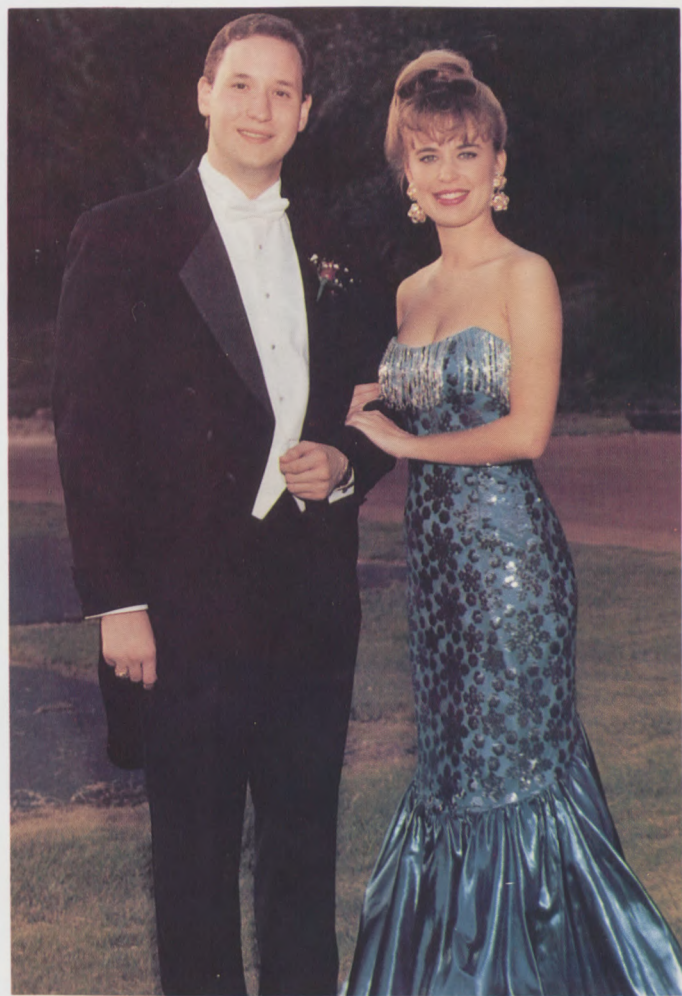

Brian Lowe as "The Church Lady" talked with "The Naturals", Jamey Nettles and Jason Cox.

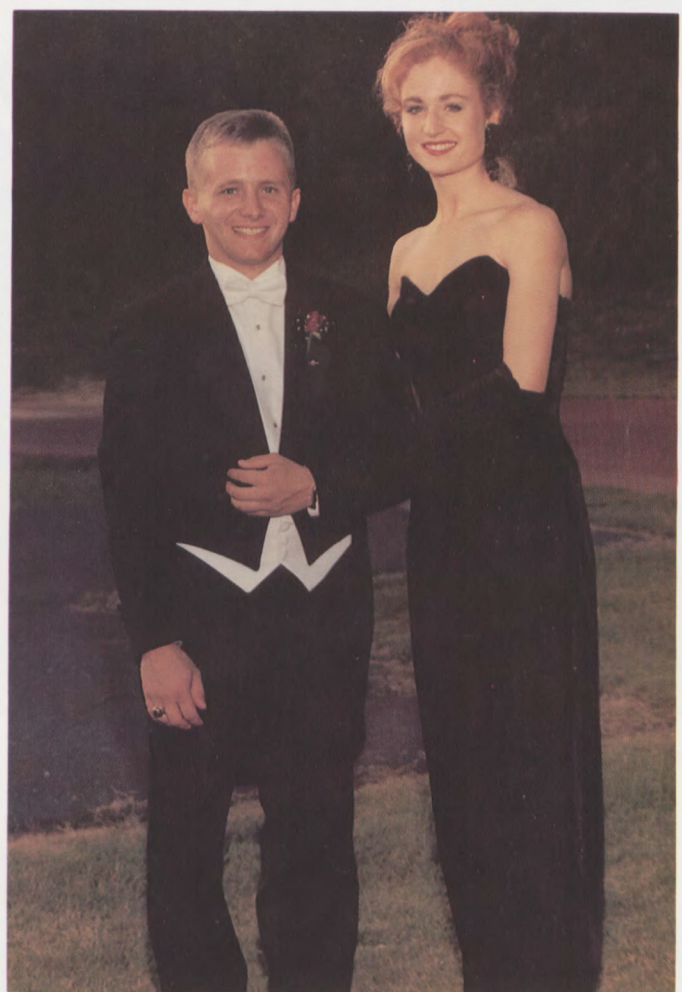

Kissimee brought back from the past, John Belushi's Samurai Hotel with Scott Miller and John Aldridge.

Homecoming Court

Homecoming

The Naturals performed flawlessly for Homecoming, singing an array of different songs.

Homecoming week was full of different activities. These activities consisted of the homecoming parade, game, follies, the Naturals performance, and alumni or mother daughter receptions. The activities took a great deal of organizing. The Freshman class won the float contest, while Swannanoa came in second and Civitan came in third. The other floats that participated were very well put together. The Naturals put on a grand show in Swor Auditorium after the cheerleaders performed and the Homecoming Court was presented. Dr. Nobles was also given a plaque to add to his collection, by the directors of The Naturals.

Laguna Social Tribe parades down the street with their signs and clowns.

Swannanoa's alumni reception was beautifully decorated and had many actives come back.

The floats line up to start the parade's action.

A great performance of cheers were done by the best cheerleaders around.

Nenamoosha hangs with tradition of riding in a red fire truck in the parade.

Parade & Activities

Swannanoa pledges and president Katrina add the finishing touches to their float.

Dorm Life

Justin concentrates hard on the video game furnished in Whittington.

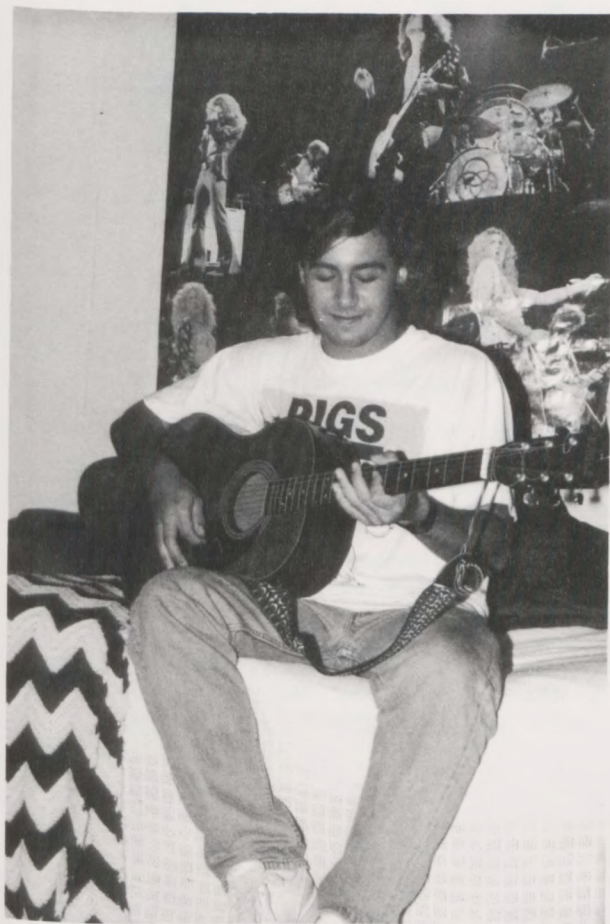

Questioning a problem with Chemistry, Jamey Nettles is caught getting answers over the phone.

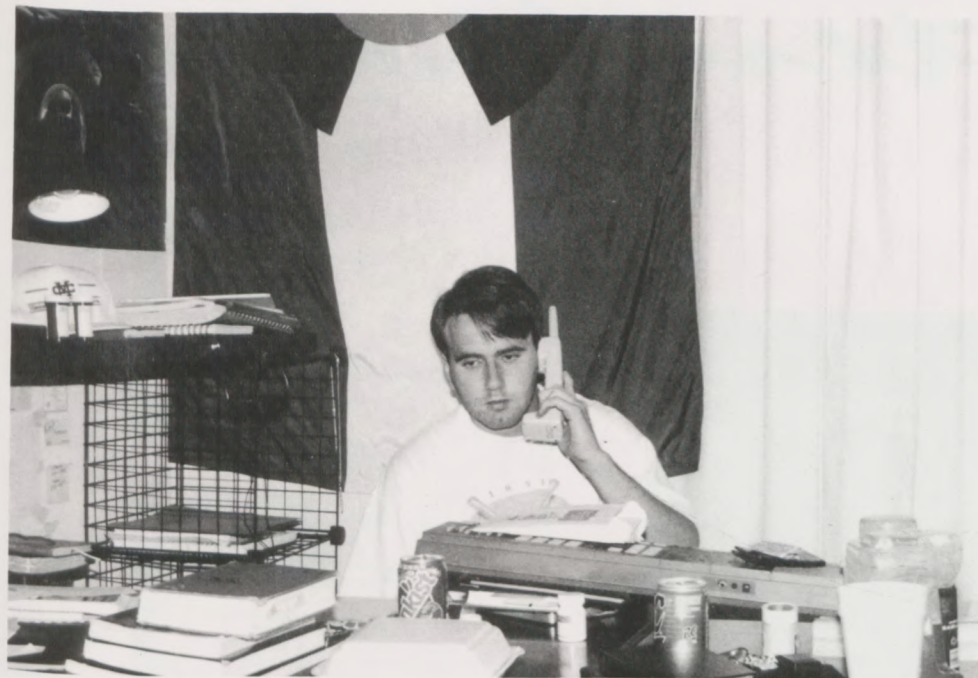

Leaving home has an awful affect on the rooms of college freshman. "What Happened, Heidi?"

Dorm Life is a unique experience for any college student. Being away from home for the first time can be devastating, but living in a dorm with strangers seems to be worse. Many people state that dorm life has changed their life. At home, people were usually on a schedule and had their parents there to make decisions for them. Here at college, students learn to make their own decisions and depend on themselves. Dorm Life has brought much excitement and/or distress to one's life.

Hope those are the right notes, Andy MacDonald.

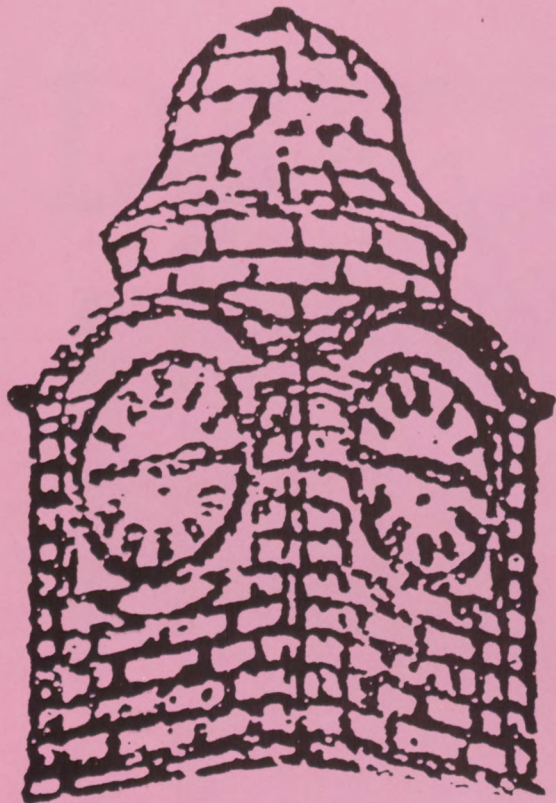

"Neat? Heather, your room is actually neat?"

John Shupe takes time from cleaning his desk to talk on the phone.

Amanda Daho — "I really enjoy the dorm life because it has taught me to act independently and take on responsibilities like an adult. Dorm Life can also be very chaotic when I try to study or sleep."

Curfew has always been a topic of conversation among freshman women, but these days the talk is more positive. Freshman curfew has been extended to midnight during the week for special social events.

It has been decided that freshman women would be allowed one hour extended curfew on nights of social club functions.

"I have no problem with it so far," Dean Hand said. "I have heard nothing positive or negative about it."

Whether or not curfew will be extended further or possibly even eliminated is yet to be seen. Hand sees it as a positive, not a negative change.

"I think curfew is healthy as far as a guide," she said. "It's a healthy way to start off your freshman year. It gives you incentive to work for a B to have later curfew second semester."

Hilda Harper, resident director for Hederman and Gunter dormitories, also feels curfew is beneficial to new students.

"The freshman curfew in general is good because it gives new freshman students the opportunity to get organized and develop a study system," Harper said. "It's a special treat — something they can look forward to. It's not a complete breakdown as far as the traditional 11 p.m. curfew."

One might think the response from the upperclassmen would be negative, but the response has been good.

"I don't see any problem with letting them stay out until midnight," said Stephanie Nohra, sophomore. "It doesn't bother me. I wish we could have had it, but it's good that it's been implemented. It needed to be done."

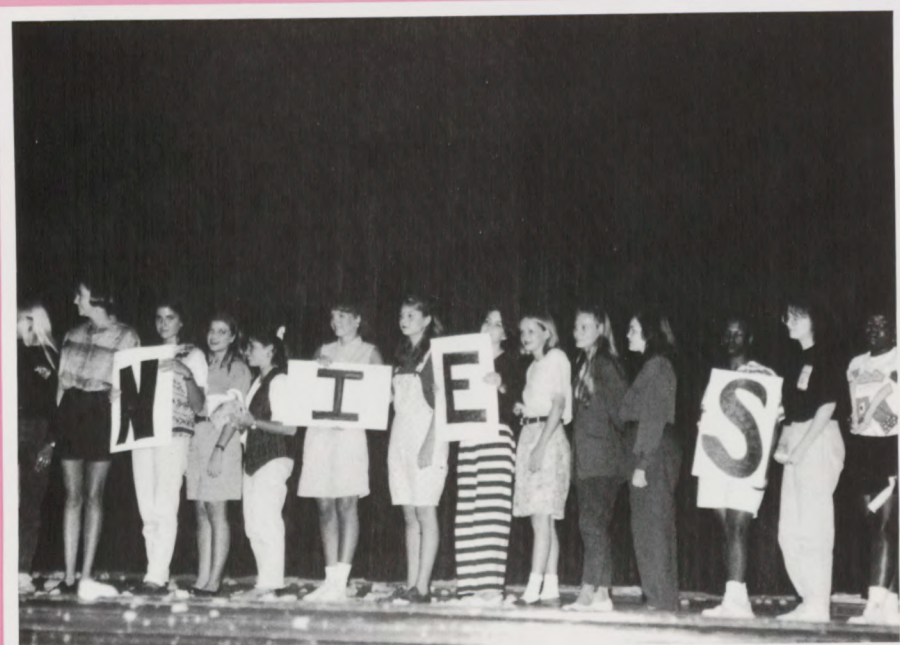

"It hasn't affected me yet," said Melanie Berham, freshman, "but, it will give us the opportunity to spend more time getting to know the upperclassmen while attending swaps and other social functions."

Most parents, according to Hand and Harper, fully support curfew.

"There are many parents who appreciate the fact that MC has a curfew that helps young people set responsibilities for themselves," Harper said. "Having a late second semester curfew every night is also an incentive. We hope it works out best for everyone."

Fire in The Webb

In the early morning hours of Sept. 11, fire alarms and shouting resident assistants (RA's) awakened most of the residents of Latimer-Webb dormitory.

Around 3:30a.m., a small electrical fire  originating and contained in the boiler room of the dorm produced smoke that Resident Director Kathy Maze said she smelled. Maze awoke her husband, Gary, and he quickly found the source of the smoke.

"I found the fire  coming from the boiler room, which is separate from the dorm. I pulled the fire  alarm because it didn't go off on it's own. The boiler room door was confining most of the smoke to the room until I opened it," Gary Maze said.

"I actually put the fire  out myself with an extinguisher, but I called campus security to notify  the fire department  in case the fire  wasn't completely out," he added.

"I was mainly concerned about making sure all the girls were out, and the possible effects of the smoke," Kathy Maze said.

"The Clinton fire department  responded  immediately to the situation, and the RA's reacted as they were supposed to by getting all of the girls out of the dorm. Within about an hour, all of the girls were safely back in the dorm," Gary Maze said.

"Once everybody realized that the fire  was real, they got out smoothly. Fortunately, we were able to re-enter the building before too long," said Lydia Atkinson, first floor RA.

"My parents are firemen, so I knew the procedure for evacuating a fire , but everything was confusing that time of the morning. The only thing I could think to grab was my goldfish , Deter," said Shannon McBurnette, a first floor resident.

"I was scared and in shock when I first heard the alarm, and I knew we had to get out of the dorm," said Jennifer Bird, a third floor resident.

Bird's roommate, Kristi Haygood, had a different perspective on what was going on.

"I was too sleepy to be scared. I thought it was all a false alarm, and Jennifer had to yell at me to get me to leave," Haygood said.

As a result of the fire, the boiler room operation of heating water shut down. However, maintenance responded promptly at 7a.m. and replaced the faulty parts on the boiler equipment so that the hot water was back on by that evening.

Monday night following the fire , meetings were held to explain what actually happened, and to clarify procedures in case of future emergencies.

"We were really lucky that the fire  was contained in a place where it wouldn't endanger the main building. The weather was nice enough to evacuate without hesitation. And, everyone seemed to know how to react to the situation," Gary Maze said.

A special thanks to Kathy Kerr for the article.

HURRICANE ANDREW

As most MC students were leaving home, some were afraid that their homes would be leaving them. During the fall orientation and registration, Hurricane Andrew brought powerful rains and damaging winds to our coastal states. Florida, Louisiana, and the Mississippi Gulf Coast suffered a great deal of loss. Homes, businesses, and churches were severely damaged, if not destroyed. Many people lost everything they owned. Food supplies were scarce, and had it not been for assistance from individuals and organizations in the northern regions of these states, some might have had to go without food or shelter. Many showed their concern by helping, sending food, or aiding in reconstruction.

Some MC students were more concerned than others — the ones who had homes and families in the unyielding path of Andrew. MC sophomore, Misty Mather, of Naples, Florida, was one of these. While her mother was helping Misty move to Clinton, her father and sister were at home. Reports soon came that Andrew might be one of the worst storms to hit Naples in many years. With this warning, Naples residents evacuated. Being in Mississippi for the first time, Misty recalled, "My mom and I just prayed and watched TV — that's all we could do." Good news soon came to Mather. Andrew came and the only damage that was done was to her roof. Naples newspapers ran the headline "Guardian Angels Watching Over Naples." The Mathers family added, "We Know Who is watching over all of us."

Convocation

Delegates from over 100 colleges across the United States converged on Mississippi College in full academic regalia on Oct. 19.

These well wishers joined students, faculty, and other prestigious guests in congratulating Dr. Lewis Nobles on 25 years of service to MC.

Convocation exercises were on Oct. 19 in A.E. Wood Coliseum to celebrate 25 years of Dr. Nobles' presence at MC.

"Dr. Nobles declined the usual inaugural ceremonies because he felt college resources could be more wisely spent addressing more pressing college needs," said Susie Jordan, assistant to the president. "That's the kind of man he is."

"He agreed to the convocation this year to bring honor and recognition to the college," said Jordan.

Full-time faculty, campus and law school student body officers, and some of Dr. Nobles' personal and organizational associates marched with the various delegates.

John Naisbitt, author of MEGATRENDS and MEGATRENDS 2000, was the scheduled convocation speaker.

The event was open to the public, and class schedules were altered to allow all students, faculty, and staff to attend. A reception followed the ceremony.

Higher Call

Higher Call is a Christian band that is starting now at MC. The band members are as follows: Steven Antrim, a sophomore who plays the guitar; John Bullock, a junior who plays bass; sophomore drummer Joe Curet; and Jason Cox, a sophomore who sings lead vocals.

Here is a sample of the talent of Higher Call:

"He Cries"

Sometimes you feel like a song no one's singing.
Sometimes you feel like you're blowin' in the wind.
Sometimes you feel that you just can't go on fighting.
You wonder why,
You wonder why,
You still cry.

Sometimes you feel like a clown and no one's laughing.
Sometimes you feel that your prayers are never heard.
Sometimes you feel that your faith won't move a mountain.
You wonder why,
You wonder why,
You still cry.

Sometimes He felt like a song no one's singing.
And for your life, he was hangin' in the wind.
Sometimes He felt just like giving up the fighting.
You know it's true,
You know it's true,
He cries for you.

Beauty for Passion

Beauty for Passion is another one of MC's talented bands. The band members are as follows: John Aldridge, Kevin Bower, John Bullock, Joe Curet, and CK Sample. The band mostly plays Christian Alternative Music. They are a very special part of MC's student life, and we are proud to have them representing this college.

MISSISSIPPI COLLEGE STUDENT NURSES WORK IN MEXICAN MISSION CLINICS

by Kay Travis

Mexico! The very name brings visions of the crystal waters of Cancun, a moonlight cruise of the bay below the cliffs of Acapulco, bullfights, and the ancient pyramids of Mexico City. A vacationer's paradise! However, it was far different visions that were seen by Mississippi College School of Nursing Instructor, Kaye Wilson, and thirteen senior nursing students who went to work in the very primitive medical mission clinics of rural Mexico. We had the opportunity to experience first hand the cultural and spiritual aspects of nursing, which are the major emphases of the two non-clinical nursing elective courses that gave structure to this pioneer project.

The vision for the project began at Baptist Nursing Fellowship meeting when Delores York, a registered nurse and area coordinator for the Rio Grande River Ministry (a division of the Baptist General Convention of Texas), spoke about the medical mission work being done in Mexico. Various volunteer teams of nurses, doctors, dentists, builders, and church-related groups came to stay at Cone-Oasis Baptist Encampment to help with the mission work in the area. The main purpose of the medical ministry is to minister to the whole person, including physical, mental, and spiritual needs. This involves not only a commitment to the best medical care under the circumstances but also a sensitivity to the spiritual needs of the Mexican people.

Several Mississippi College nursing students, having heard Delores York speak, thought that working in the mission clinics would be a very educational and meaningful experience for our class. The idea was presented to Kaye Wilson, who agreed to sponsor the group, and Mississippi College officials gave their blessing to the trip.

We spent many hours praying and preparing for the trip. Cecile Alexander, a retired missionary from Argentina, taught our class a crash course in Spanish culture and language, but crossing the Rio Grand River that first day and going into rural Mexico was a cultural shock. Poverty became a real word to us as we saw families of ten to twelve living in one-room houses with dirt floors, outhouses, spoiled food, drinking water from the river, and very limited medical care. We knew the week ahead was going to be a challenge.

Each morning the mission team, which included Delores York, Johnathan the dentist, our interpreters Rolando and Virginia, and the volunteer student nurses, would leave the camp and cross the border patrol at Progreso, Mexico. There the medical supplies were loaded into the vans, then we would travel sometimes as long as three hours to reach the clinic. While we unloaded and set up the clinical supplies, the pastor of the local church would spread the word we were there. When the people arrived, the pastor would have a devotion before we began seeing the patients. We saw from fifty to sixty patients a day.

In Mexico the hospitals and doctors are located in the large cities, and only people who can afford to pay can receive medical care. There are no government health programs to help the poor people. These free mission clinics, supported by the Texas Baptist Convention and donations, provide health care to many Mexican people. Because of the large number of clinics, the health team can only visit a clinic once every four or five weeks.

The clinics are located in either government-owned buildings or make-shift arrangements in homes, schools, and Baptist mission churches. The mission teams have learned to use every available resource. A chair under a large shade tree became a dentist office, the back yard of a church and a hose pipe became a delousing treatment center, a nail on the wall served as an IV pole, a water pik was used for ear irrigation, and when there were not enough tables, concrete blocks were set up to hold the lab and pharmacy supplies. At one location, where a frame with a tarpaulin on top was our clinic, the van was used as an examination room.

Our jobs in the clinics consisted of lab work, pharmacy, dental assistance, hygiene education, general assessment, and assisting with minor surgical procedures. We also screened for and treated lice and scabies. We all received our NP (nurse puppeteer) certificates while in Mexico.

Most of the patients' illnesses were minor, due primarily to the unsanitary conditions, but some were very serious. We saw patients with blood clots, cataracts, broken bones, diabetes, ear infections, and skin diseases. But the patient who touched our hearts the most was a little eight-year-old boy diagnosed with Hepatitis. His mother had brought her six children to the clinic to be treated for lice. It was while we were washing his hair that we discovered how very sick he was. Our interpreter picked him up in his arms and carried him home, and the nurses started IV fluids on him. We didn't think he would live through the night. Many tears were shed and many prayers were said for this child. We knew what limited help we could give him, but we also knew the Great Physician was not limited. We later learned that God had answered our prayers and "our" little Mexican boy had recovered.

The Mexicans are a very patient and gracious people. We had so many heart-warming responses — the happy faces of the little boys and girls when we gave them toothbrushes and coloring books, a smile from a lady who had six infected toenails removed, and a hug from a teary-eyed little girl who had just received a shot. We watched the fascinated expressions on the faces of the little children seeing puppets for the first time, saw an old gentleman cry when he put on a pair of used glasses because he was so happy to see his family clearly, and witnessed the joy of a young woman whose spiritual need was met as we shared God's love.

The greatest reward of the week was the privilege of working with Delores York. Her love for God, people, and nursing was an inspiration to all of us. Delores works long hard hours, leaving home at 7:30 a.m. and returning most nights after midnight, with very little monetary compensation. Yet the words we so often hear — burn out, stressed out, and drop out — were not in her vocabulary. She always had a word of encouragement and a smile.

What an exciting, challenging week it was working in the mission clinics in Mexico. As the week ended we knew our pioneer project had been a success. We had learned many valuable lessons from the Mexican people about the Cultural Aspects of Nursing. We didn't know much about the Cultural Aspects of Nursing, but now we have seen nursing as a ministry and a profession first hand. We realized another important thing — that it is a privilege to live in a country that has excellent health care for its people.

In the early morning hours, as we crossed the border back into our own country for the last time and saw our flag flying high, we were happy to be going home. Home to Mississippi College!

Health Fair

The Student Nurses enjoyed speaking in Chapel.

Twice a year, Mississippi College's School of Nursing conducts a health fair in the lobby of the Mississippi Baptist Building. Educational information and some screenings will be available on several topics such as hypertension, diabetes, glaucoma, cancer, exercise, and nutrition.

These students are having fun being Student Nurses for a day.

Using Dr. Nobles as her model, this nurse demonstrates the proper way to take a person's blood pressure.

In memory of

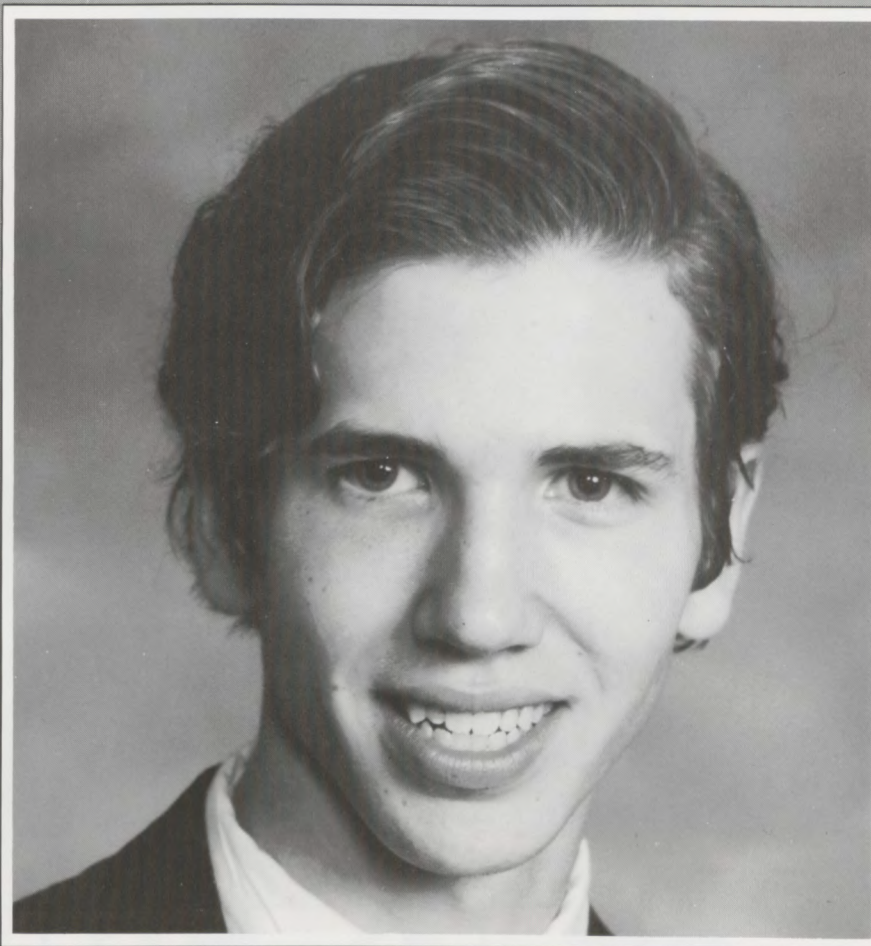

DR. HOWARD SPELL

Dr. Howard Spell had a long and wonderful relationship with Mississippi College. Dr. Spell served the college under four presidents. He started teaching Spanish under Dr. Provine. Almost every honor that can be bestowed by Mississippi College has been awarded to Dr. Spell. In 1988, the Board of Trustees voted to name the auditorium of the historic Provine Chapel in honor of Dr. Spell. Even in declining health, Dr. Spell was a frequent visitor to campus. His love for Mississippi College was evident. On May 4, 1992, Mississippi College lost a great professor, an able administrator, an avid supporter and a wonderful, faithful friend.

Dr. Howard Spell

In memory of

Matthew Bradford

Matthew Bradford was a young man with a brilliant mind and a fighting spirit. Matthew came to Mississippi College as a National Merit Scholar with set ideas about where he was going in life. Unfortunately those plans took a detour when he was diagnosed with cancer. Now his fighting spirit came into play. He continued to pursue his goals and fight this disease at the same time. He approached cancer with the same determination he approached academics. He gave it everything. He underwent Chemotherapy and a bone marrow transplant. He continued working to complete the requirements for his degree. Lacking only a few hours to graduate, Matthew's health deteriorated. His fighting spirit did not. On Saturday, January 2, 1993, Matthew's fight was over. Matthew did not realize his dreams but he left us with a legacy to remember. No matter how difficult things are, the fight must go on. Romans 8:28 says "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to his purpose." We do not know the good that will come from Matthew's death but God's promise from his word will not fail us nor Matthew.

Matthew Bradford

In memory of

IN MEMORIAM

MICHELLE MELTON KEITH 1951 - 1992

Michelle was taken from us early on the morning of October 2nd while studying.

AN UNTITLED POEM WRITTEN AND READ ON THE OCCASION OF MICHELLE'S MEMORIAL SERVICE.

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow;
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times A loved one's touch;
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with your grief;
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee
God wanted me now! He set me free!*

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard His call,
I turned my back and left it all;
I couldn't stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play;
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys;
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.*

Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

A TRIBUTE WRITTEN BY A FRIEND AND FELLOW STUDENT -- JOEL MISITA

*Michelle was so amazing to me.
She was a mother of three.
Wife, student, classmate, and most of all a friend.*

*You could simply be yourself when she was around.
It did not matter what you had to say or do
She was always there for you.
You did not have to censor what you had to say
Or fear she would walk away.*

*At home she was wonderful. It was nonstop - Children's homework, projects, Avon, Jr. Auxilliary, school bus driver.....and full time college!!
I do not see how she did it all.*

*As a classmate, she was the best
She passed the test
She once told me, "Honey, I am not here to compete against you.
We are in this together. If I can help you just let me know
And I will do my best."
An attitude like that consists of team work
No one or anything can beat a team with that attitude.*

*Most of all she was my best friend.
She made school something it was not to me -- fun.
If it was math, science, kiddy lit, she was always there to help.*

*I only knew her for nine short months,
But it felt like nine years.
School will never be the same for me and many others.
Now she is gone.*

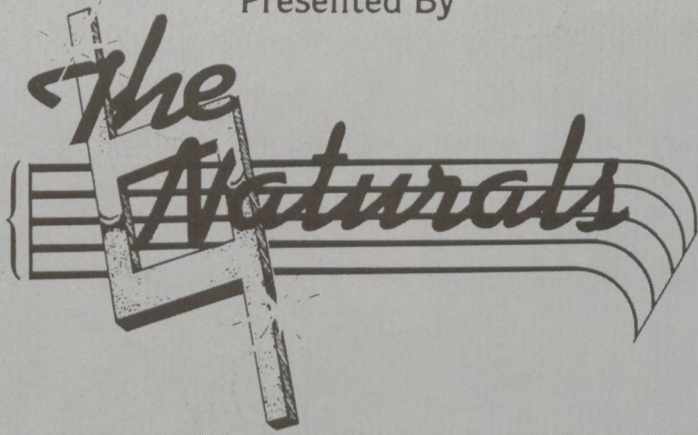

Performers of MC

Presented By

THE NATURALS travel throughout Mississippi and to numerous destinations across the country to present their action-packed musical revue to audiences of all ages. The dynamic group of twelve performers, five instrumentalists and four technical crew members performs for national, as well as regional and state conventions; for Chambers of Commerce and luncheons, benefits, festivals, fairs and schools.

The fast-paced program features precision choreography with explosive energy, dazzling costumes, props and knock-em-dead enthusiasm from the youthful performers. They embrace the music of many eras and make it their own. From Broadway hits to Nostalgic Oldies, Country, Top 40, Soul, Contemporary Christian and Gospel, many musical genres find their way into a typical NATURALS performance.

THE 1992-93 MISSISSIPPI COLLEGE NATURALS: Front row, from left: Tommy Creel, Prentiss; Wendy Champion, Clarksdale; Chad Logan, Cleveland; Cheryl Simmons, West Point; Steven Barnett, Clinton; Mary Greenlee, Clewiston, Florida; and Tim Moak, Bogue Chitto. Second row, from left: Jamey Nettles, Jackson; Melanie Barham, Ruston, Louisiana; Jennifer Malone, Jackson; Mendy Sims, Richton; and Mat Neal, Fort Collins, Colorado. Third row, from left: Charles McLendon, Richland; Berk Sauls, Clinton; John Bullock, Jackson; Brian Hilburn, Cleveland; Jay Taylor, Clinton; Clay Whittington, Richland; Andy MacDonald, Laurel; and Ben Buchanan, Indianola.

"They are 100% No Preservatives, No Sugar Added
— ALL NATURAL!"

— Jerry Clower, Country Humorist
and benefactor of the Jerry Clower
Scholarship Fund

As the official entertainers for the Mississippi Economic Council's "Look Around, Mississippi" campaign from its inception in 1989 through its conclusion in December, 1992,
THE NATURALS travelled throughout the state to perform
for Chamber of Commerce events.

ROBBIE LLOYD BELL, PRO-DUCTION DIRECTOR, has written, directed, performed, produced, designed lighting and choreographed numerous stage, musical, video and film presentations for schools, churches, businesses and institutions throughout the country. She earned her MED in Theatre and Communications at M.C. and taught for ten years on the Faculty of Millsaps College, her alma mater. She has been at Mississippi College since the revival of THE NATURALS in 1987
... and also serves the college as Publicist.

EVA AULTMAN HART, MU-SICAL DIRECTOR, has broad experience as a vocalist and accompanist, as well as conducting choirs, ensembles, and coaching private students. She has performed on USO tours across Europe, in summer stock theatre, and for religious crusades and revivals. She is a fourth generation graduate of M.C. with a BMEd., and earned her MM in Opera Production from Ole Miss. She has taught on the M.C. Faculty since 1973 and is also Music Assistant/Pianist for First Baptist Church in Jackson.

"Tricia and I always look forward to events for which THE NATURALS are performing. These talented, enthusiastic and always entertaining young people are wonderful ambassadors for Mississippi College and our great state."

— U. S. Senator Trent Lott

"Top notch talent, All-American looks, plus runaway energy make THE NATURALS dynamite entertainment ... as close to a professional group as I've ever seen."

— Guy Hovis, Singer and Feature Entertainer on "The Lawrence Welk Show"

The stirring Patriotic finale of NATURALS performances has brought audiences to their feet time and time again. It is a tradition to include a salute to this great country in each program. There is a wealth of exciting music about America . . . and THE NATURALS take it to heart and bring it to life!

"THE NATURALS performed for the National Conference of Chief Justices of the various Supreme Courts of the United States. Their performance was enjoyed tremendously . . . These are outstanding talented young people, and M.C. is to be commended . . ."

— Dan M. Lee, Presiding Justice
Mississippi Supreme Court

"I have performed in all fifty states and around the world during my thirty years in show business . . . for Kings, Dukes, Presidents and all the Governors in the U.S., and I have performed with many stars but I have never heard or performed with any better than THE NATURALS from Mississippi — Mississippi College, that is!"

Soccer

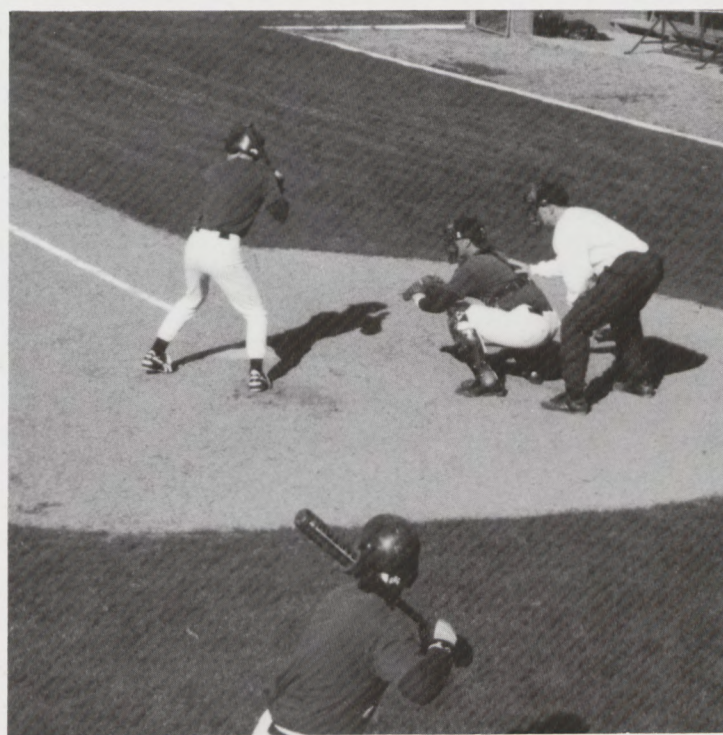

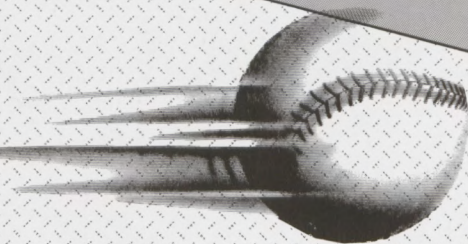

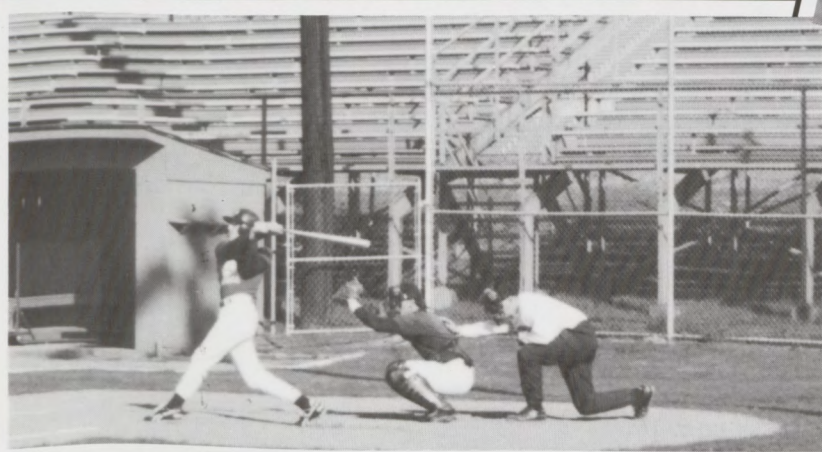

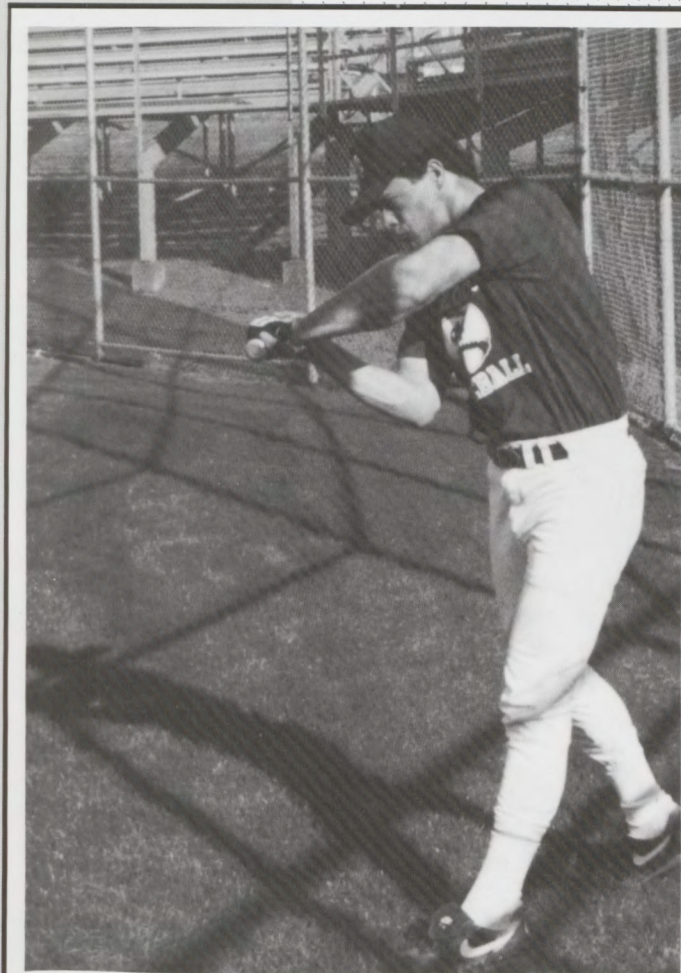

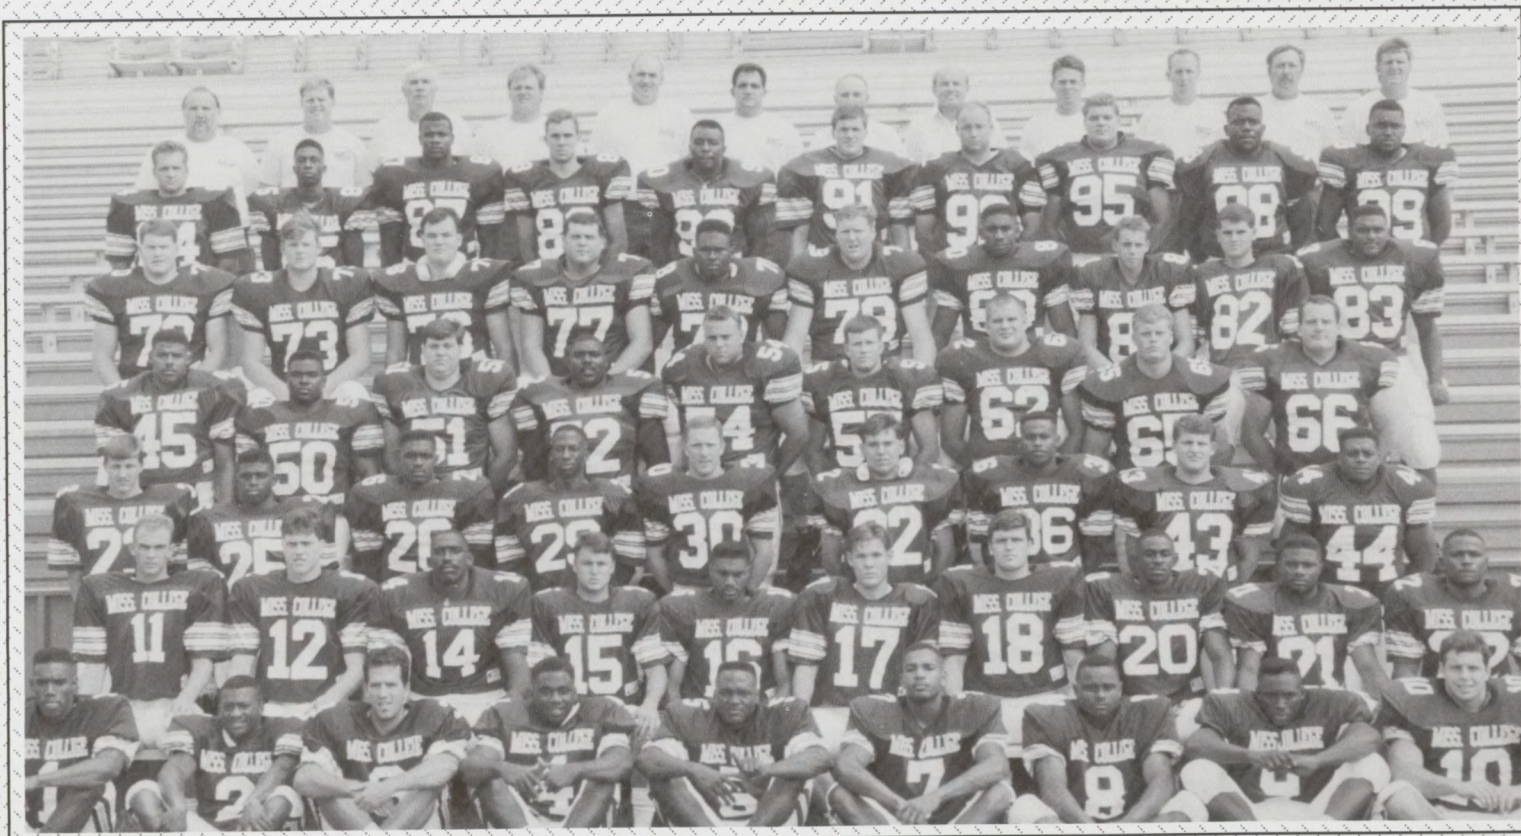

With so many new faces and unfamiliar names, this year's Soccer Chocs pulled together with exceptional discipline and effort to round out the year with a 11-10 record. The team was considered a young group of players with the majority of the players fresh out of high school. The young Chocs were able to grow together as a team with the examples and advice of Marty May, Tim Young, and John Smallwood. Once established as a "team", it took many hours of practice and game time to get to know each other. If success is measured by what people learn, then the 1992-1993 soccer season was definitely a success.

34	Delta State	23

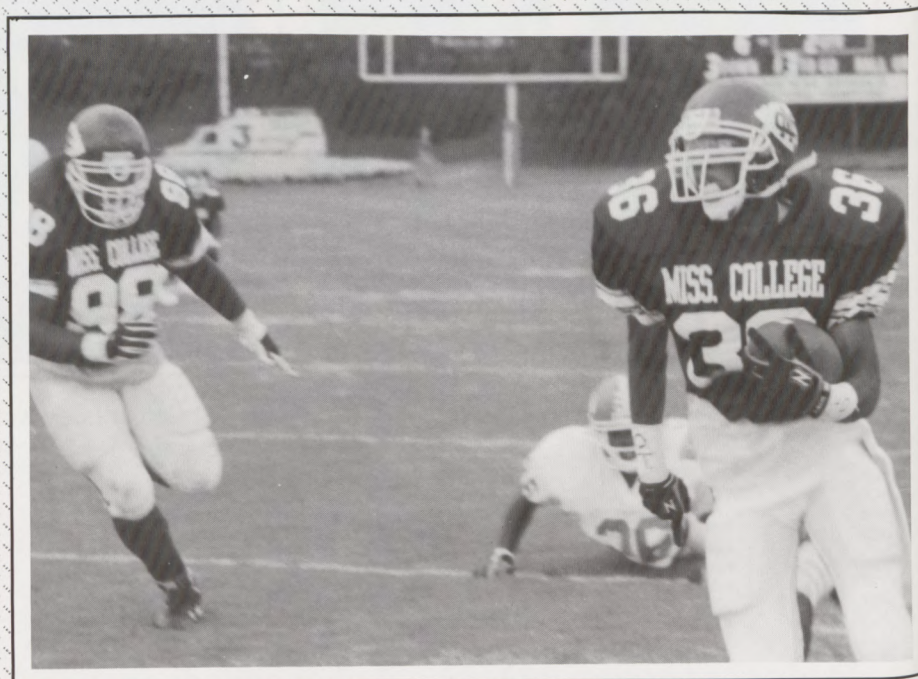

Junior Quarterback, Brad Strohm poses for the Heisman shot as he weaves past the West Georgia line in route to a 45-38 victory.

Miguel Callier laterals the ball to Kevin Blackmon as the West Georgia Braves fight to bring him down.

Right: Defensive back Metric Thompson is going, going, gone down the sideline after picking off a Jacksonville State pass. The Chocs harrassed the Gamecocks offense all day holding them to just 14 points. Unfortunately, the Chocs couldn't get anything going either and the game ended in a tie.

Below: Cedric Baker holds as Charley McGinn tries for the extra point against Texas A & I.

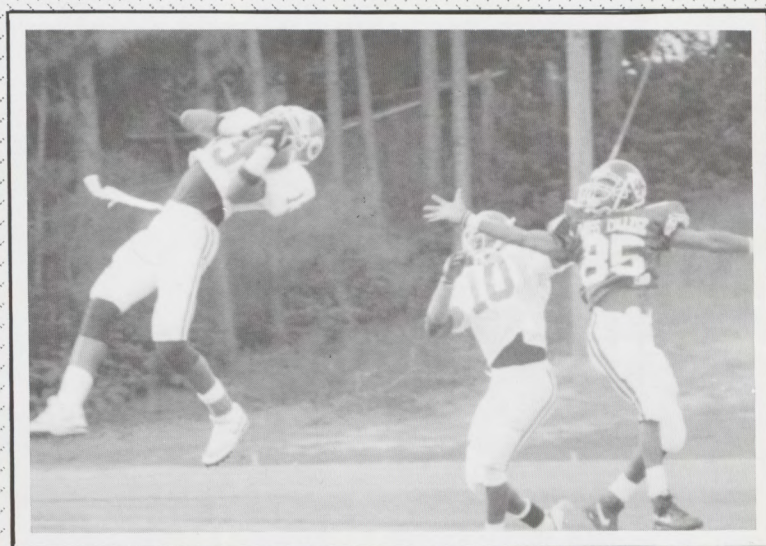

Left: The Chocs defense swarms Jacksonville as defensive end Richard Myers leads the war party.

Lower Left: Starting quarterback Cedric Baker guns the ball downfield as he leads the Chocs to a 37-33 homecoming victory over nationally ranked Texas A & I.

Below: Yet another Choctaw pass intercepted as this scene depicts the rather disappointing year the team had. The Choctaws did manage a 14-14 tie in this one, though, largely due to great defense.

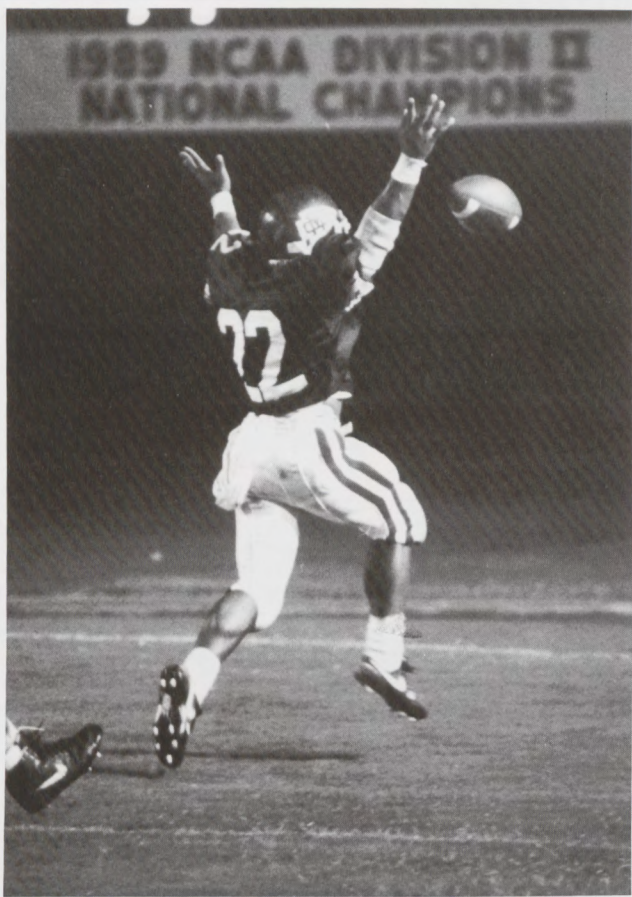

Quarterback Cedric Baker hands off the running back Jay Bourne as he speeds toward the Texas A & I line.

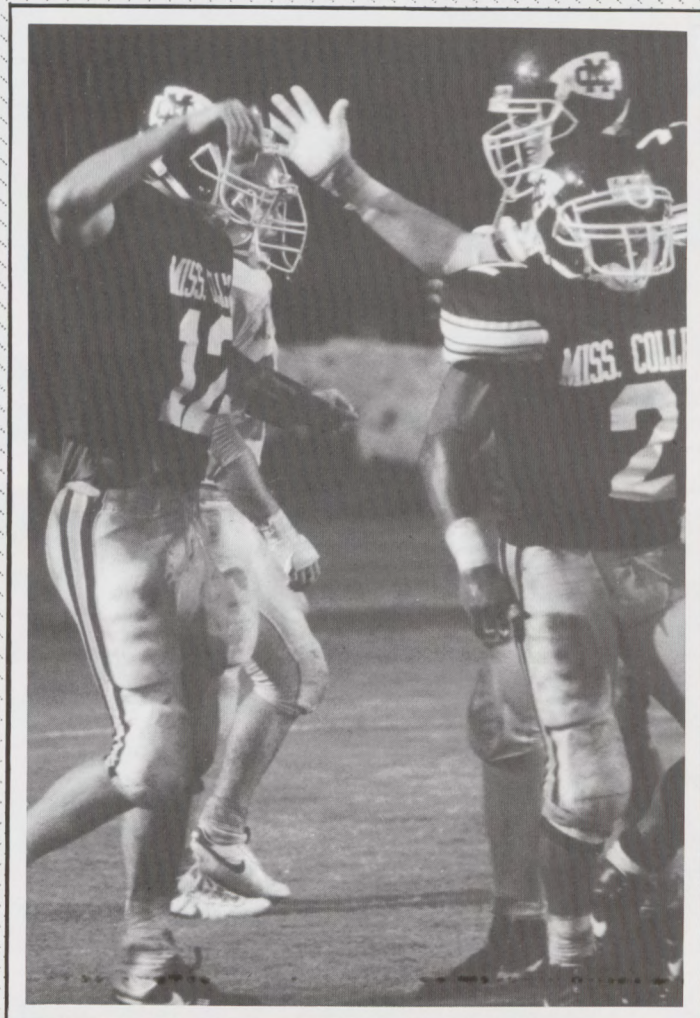

Above: Offensive lineman Kevin Gaughf starts toward the camera man as Cedric Baker hands off to Miguel Callier on first down.

Left: Running back Kevin Blackmon drops the ball (ouch! it's hot!) as he crosses the goal line for the score — TOUCH-DOWN!!!

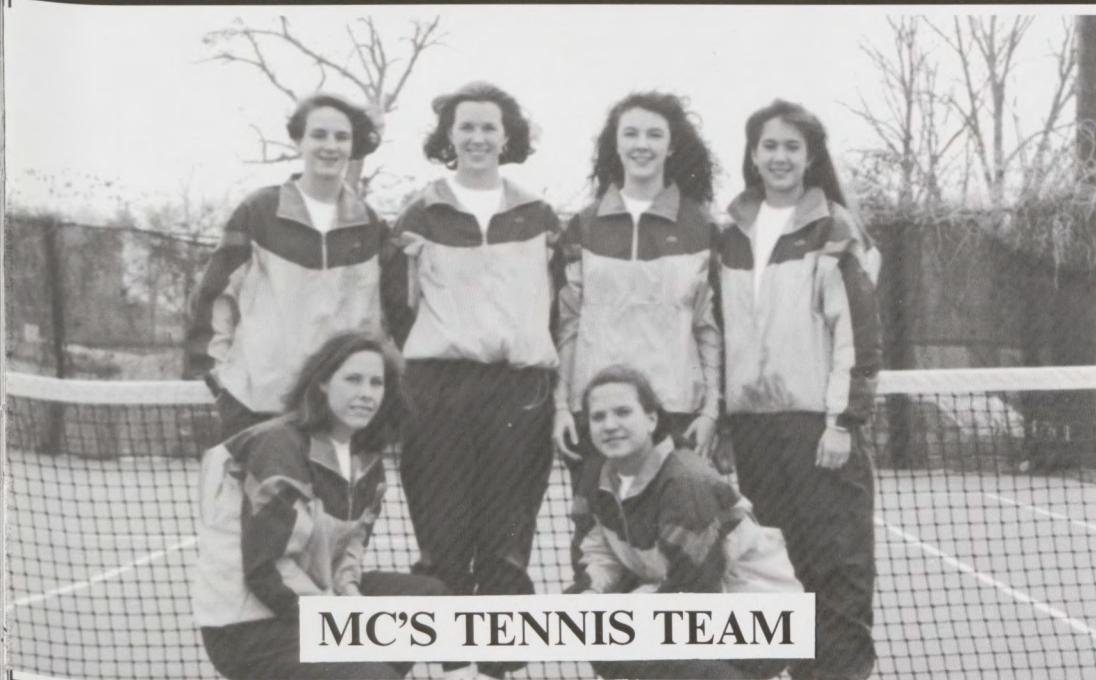

Right: Quarterback Brad Strohm congratulates Justin Campbell on the play as Miguel Callier smiles for the camera — PR time!

Anna, Mindy, and Katherine are all SMILES during Rush Workshop!

Sophomore Beau, Jason Cox gives advice to his Laguna sisters.

During Rush, the new members had participated in several activities such as Squeal Night and picnics where they met their big sisters.

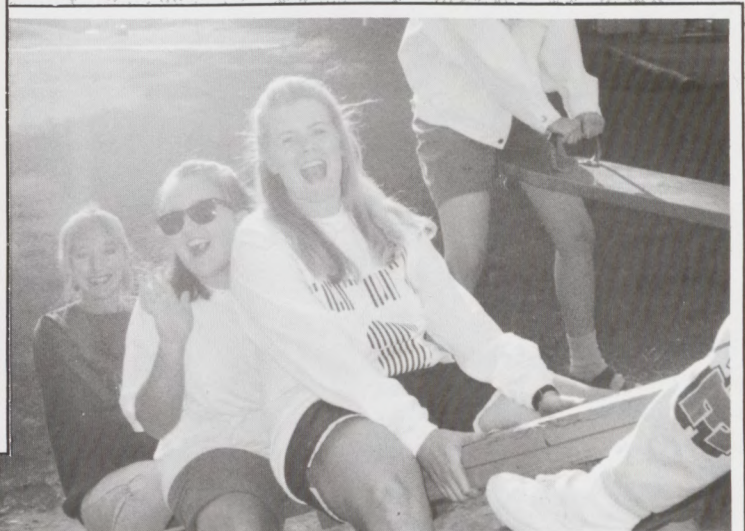

This is the price you pay for being rebellious during Rush!

Swap Chairmen, Nichole Price and Jennifer Marshall, prepare for the Halloween swap with Civitan!

Senior Beau, Rob Futral pigs out after a hard day's work of being the Senior Beau! We'll miss you, Rob!

Dear Student Body:

As I look back on the year 1992-1993, I can honestly say that Mississippi College has been the place to be. For in this past year, the Student Body Association has been renamed the Student Government Association, the freshman girls curfew raised on every "social" occasion, and of course we could never forget The Nobles Legacy. History was made at Mississippi College with the Convocation, and I am proud that the Student Government and the Student Body were a part of that historic moment. Many campus events were brought to you by the Student Government such as: the first ever Battle of Campus Bands; outside concerts with THE CHOIR, THE THROES, THE DAY OF THE IGUANA, ME & ALICE, and THE FINS; the first ever sponsorship of the Shakespeare Festival; several Midnight Breakfasts for fun without exams, and many other daily events. The Basketball Homecoming tradition continued, as well as Spring Fever Day festivities. The Student Senate began with young members, but quickly broke them in with immense amounts of profitable legislation throughout the year. At this time, I would like to be a little personal and thank all of you students that did become involved in campus activities. Because of you, we had what I deem an extremely successful year. I would also like to thank my SGA Officers. This year would not have been all that it was without your assiduous work and service. Thank you for meeting the high expectations I set. Mississippi College will forever be in my heart thanks to all of you. I am honored you gave me the opportunity to serve you all. May God Bless You Richly!

Alma Mater

Fairest of all is our dear Mississippi
Rising in state as the crest of a hill;
Staunch as a rock is our dear Alma Mater,
Round her so noble our hopes ever live.

When, in the future, our hearts may be yearning
For the bright scenes of our dear college youth,
Back to thy portals our memories turning,
Clear gleams thy beacon of virtue and truth.

MC We hail thee, our dear Mississippi
Queen of our hearts, no foe shall alarm;
Faithful and loyal thy children will ever
Cherish thy mem'ry acknowledge thy charm.
